

Point-of-Entry Screening Tool for High Consequence and Special Pathogens

PROTOCOLS

Does the patient have FEVER and/or COUGH and/or RASH?

Yes

No

Recent travel
(e.g., past month)?

END:
Manage patient per routine
(no need to notify IP)

Yes

No

Was the travel to a location experiencing
an EID outbreak?

Is there EID activity in your geographic area?

Yes

STOP: Promptly implement
appropriate isolation
precautions and notify IP!

Yes

No

No

STOP: Promptly implement
appropriate isolation
precautions and notify IP!

END:
Implement source control,
isolate as soon as possible,
manage patient per routine
(no need to notify IP)

HEALTHCARE

References

1. CDC: Considerations for Health Screening at Points of Entry [Internet]. Available from CDC.
2. Bambra C. Pandemic inequalities: emerging infectious diseases and health equity. Int J Equity Health 21, 6(2022).
3. AHCA/NCAL. Sample Policy for Emergent Infectious Diseases for SNFs [Internet]. Available from ACHA/NCAL.
4. George Washington University School of Business. What Should Hospitals Do to Prepare for Pandemics, 2020 [Internet]. Available from GWSE.
5. Clements B, et al. Emerging and Reemerging Infectious Disease Threats. Disasters and Public Health, 2016; 245-265.

For product resources and implementation tools,
contact your Clorox sales representative or call 800-234-7700
Visit: www.CloroxHealthcare.com

© 2024 Clorox Professional Products Company,
1221 Broadway, Oakland, CA 94612.

NI-64002